Dear _____:

I am pleased to extend your invitation to be a Visiting Research Scholar/Short Term Scholar/Professor in the Department/Center of _____ at/in the University of Florida. Your activities during your visit will include _____ which will require you to work closely with Dr. _____ on research related to _____. Additionally, we expect that you will be involved in many activities that will allow for cultural exchange among faculty, staff and students. Your J Program is valid for a period of _____ beginning _____ and will conclude on _____.

During your stay here, we will be able to provide you with office space, lab facilities, clerical support and computer and internet access. We will not provide you with any form of salary nor can we pay any of your expenses. We understand that you will be using personal funds or be supported by your host university or a government agency during your stay here.

To satisfy immigration and program requirements, you must demonstrate that you have the required minimum of $1500 per month of intended stay. You will also be required to purchase and maintain health and emergency evacuation insurance that meets the minimum standards set by the Department of State's Exchange Visitor Program. Additionally, you will be responsible for all fees and expenses related to your visa and stay here. If you intend to bring dependents, you will need to demonstrate you have the required health insurance for all family members and financial support for your spouse ($1000/mo) and children ($500/mo per child).

During your stay in the U.S. you are responsible for adhering to all university, immigration and exchange visitor program regulations and procedures. This offer to participate in a J program is contingent upon your providing the necessary documents to establish identity and eligibility to participate in a University of Florida sponsored J program and your eligibility to enter the United States as a J-1 exchange visitor. All J program participants bear a continuing responsibility throughout their program period to maintain their legal non-immigrant status. Therefore, during your stay in the United States you are responsible for adhering to all university, immigration and exchange visitor program regulations and procedures.

We look forward to your continued stay here at the University of Florida. We hope that your visit to the United States will fulfill the intent of the J Exchange Visitor Program—to promote mutual understanding between people of the United States and other countries by means of educational and cultural exchange.

Sincerely,

I understand and accept the conditions of this appointment as outlined above.
